

Peace Corps Celebrates 20 years in Cape Verde

On December 15, 2008, Peace Corps marked 20 years in Cape Verde with a 20th Anniversary Commemorative Stamp. In her opening remarks, Ambassador Myles thanked the Peace Corps Director for Peace Corps' commitment and contribution to helping improving the lives of thousands of Cape Verdeans for two decades. She also congratulated the Executive Director of Cape Verde's Postal Service for producing the stamps. Ambassador Myles concluded by noting that Peace Corps Volunteers are Ambassadors of Good Will and exemplify the best America has to offer. Following the unveiling ceremony, guests visited a Peace Corps project site.

Since 1988, Peace Corps Volunteers have worked in areas of English education, teacher training, vocational education, small business, municipal and community development and agro-forestry. Nearly 400 American Volunteers have served in Cape Verde.
